

10 April 1973

Mr. William H. Morris, Director
National Conference of Bar Examiners 333 North Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60601

Dear Mr. Morris:

I have your letter of 4 April 1973 concerning [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who has applied for admission to the bar of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

While I do know [REDACTED] I have no basis to form a judgment as to his legal ability. On the other hand, I have no hesitation in stating my high regard of his integrity and general fitness for the practice of law. In my professional dealings with [REDACTED] in addition to the above-mentioned personal characteristics, I have formed a high opinion of his general competence, discretion and intelligence.

I hope the above will be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Deputy General Counsel
